

My husband is a trucker and I travel with him. We purchased xm radio and pay for its services because no matter where in the US we travel we can get much needed information like weather and traffic updates. With regular broadcast radio it is impossible to receive the signal everywhere, and when there is a storm or accidents we need to know immediately. We are paying for this service and the NAB has no business telling us we can't have this service.